Dear Mr. Cartwright,

I am writing to thank you for your tireless effort in finding us a motivational speaker for our annual education pep assembly. Even though it was short notice, your hours of work both on and off the phone paid off! Our assembly was a great success. Our speaker, Jim Rooker, thought so too. Mr. Rooker, a former Pittsburgh Pirate pitcher, was well prepared and ready to motivate our students. He was very personable with both students and staff and graciously signed autographs for all those who asked. An added bonus is that he lives and works right here in our area.

The next time I need a motivational speaker, I will not hesitate to call or e-mail Sports Celebrity Marketing. Not only because you were able to get us a great inspirational speaker, but you were able to do so on our limited budget.

Thank you once again for your hard work.

Yours truly,

Patricia Horter
