(Georgetown, Ontario- September 16, 2010)-Toronto Argonaut's Andre Durie To Make Guest Appearance At 2010 Cycle For Autism Ontario

Andre Durie, Slot Back for the Toronto Argonauts will be the Celebrity Guest at the 2010 Cycle for Autism Ontario-Halton.

This year marks the 10th Cycle Anniversary Celebration of Cycle for Autism Ontario- Halton which takes place on Saturday September 18, 2010 at Bronte Creek Park. The event promises to be an enjoyable afternoon for everyone in attendance. Festivities include a BBQ, face painting, raffle, 50/50 draw, entertainment and amusing activities. As the Celebrity Guest, Durie will take part in a ribbon cutting ceremony to kick off the fun-filled day. He will be available to greet participants, pose for photos and sign autographs from 2:00 p.m.-4:00 p.m.

Andre Durie has been a member of the Toronto Argonauts Organization since 2007. On September 9, 2010 he was named CFL's Special Teams Player of the Week for his exceptional performance, returning 6 kick offs for 189 yards in the Argonauts loss to Hamilton.

Durie is a resident of Oakville, Ontario and is the Father of two children: Malcom who was diagnosed with Autism and Cian. During the off-season this year, Andre spent time working with Community Living Mississauga as a support worker. He also worked with the Argo Foundation's Youth Mentorship Program as well as the Children's Aid Society.
