

Herbie Kuhn

Herbie Kuhn is known as the "Voice of the Toronto Raptors" and has been the announcer for the team since their inception in 1995. As the in-house Voice of the Toronto Raptors, Canada's only National Basketball Association franchise, his voice is instantly recognizable to any fan who has ever attended a game at the Air Canada Centre. His role is to relay to fans the events happening on-court and Herbie does that with tremendous elan!

In addition to announcing, Herbie is the co-Chaplain of the Raptors, leading the teams' players in a chapel service before games plus conducting Bible studies and supporting them in their personal challenges. He is also Chaplain for the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL, an accomplished master of ceremonies and motivational speaker. His list of talents also includes voice-overs, commercials and freelance sports writing.

Born and raised in the Beach district of Toronto, Herbie lived out the challenges of drugs and alcohol before finding direction in his life. After five years at Toronto's Malvern Collegiate, he graduated from CEGEP Vanier College in St. Laurent, Quebec in 1994 with a Diplome d'Etudes Collegial in Languages and Literature.

Herbie and his wife Stephanie enjoy being loving parents to their son, Enhle, who was adopted from South Africa in 2006.
