Penn State Greater Allegheny Presents...
Remembering Josh Gibson
Negro League Baseball Hall of Fame Legend

Thursday, March 24, 2011, 7:00 p.m.
Penn State Greater Allegheny
4000 University Drive, McKeesport, PA 15132
Student Community Center, Ostermayer Room

2011 marks the 100 year anniversary of the birth of legendary slugger of the Negro Leagues, Josh Gibson. Our goal is to educate the masses on the legacy of Josh Gibson, whom many regard as the greatest Negro League Player ever. You will be touched by a tradition of greatness as you hear first-hand narratives from a direct descendant of Josh Gibson through his great-grandson Sean L. Gibson.

Program Format

- The Legend Behind the Plate Documentary
- Keynote speaker Sean L. Gibson, great-grandson of Josh Gibson, will discuss the history of the Negro Leagues with emphasis on city's connection.
- Ted Toles, Jr., local Negro League player and historian will make remarks followed by question and answer period.
- Items will be on display for viewers to follow Gibson's story through time.
- Raffle for Josh Gibson Gift Basket
- Autograph session and photo opportunities

Free and open to the public.
