

Lori Dupuis

Recognized as one of the best female hockey players in the world, Lori was a long time member of Canada's National Women's Ice Hockey team, logging over 100 games. She is known as an excellent shooter with quick hands, and as a playmaker with speed and agility. She is the ultimate team player who takes no prisoners. She has played in three World Championships, winning three gold medals (1997, 1990 and 2000), and in two Winter Olympics, winning a gold and silver medal.

Lori is a member of the Olympic Gold Medal winning Canadian Women's Hockey Team that competed at the 2002 Salt Lake City Winter Olympics. This was Lori's second Olympics; she was a member of the Canadian Women's Hockey Team that won the Silver Medal at the 1998 Winter Olympics held in Nagano, Japan.

Lori played all her minor hockey in Cornwall, before attending the University of Toronto. She played for the University of Toronto Blues from 1991 to 1997, serving as captain for three years. She was also nominated as the University of Toronto's Female Athlete-of-the-Year in 1996 and in 1997.

Fully bilingual, Lori holds a Bachelor of Arts (Honors) from the University of Toronto. She runs the Jayna Hefford/Lori Dupuis Hockey School with teammate, Jayna Hefford.

