

Mike Eagles

Is it possible for a player to play 15 NHL seasons and yet only play in 853 games? Yes it is – see Mike Eagles' career. Mike sure kept the team trainers busy!

As a junior, Mike played for Team Canada in 1983 and won a bronze medal at the World Junior Championship.

Eagles began his career with the Quebec Nordiques where he played for 4 seasons. He was traded to the Chicago Blackhawks in 1988 and played two seasons in Chicago before being traded to the Winnipeg Jets. Mike actually played in all games in the 1992-93 season, the only year he played in all his team's games. Following 5 years in Winnipeg he was traded to the Washington Capitals where he finished his career.

After a strong junior career, Mike's injuries kept him from fulfilling his true potential. Yet he played 15 injury-plagued seasons in the NHL. He is a member of the New Brunswick Sports Hall of Fame.

Eagles has been a Christian since his playing days and he participates with Hockey Ministries International.
