

Nick Eason

Massive 6'2", 305 lb. Nick Eason is a Super Bowl champion! As a member of the Pittsburgh Steelers, he won Super Bowl XLIII as champs of the 2008 season.

Nick was drafted by the Denver Broncos in 2003 but an Achilles Tendon injury ended his first season. He was later assigned to NFL Europe and upon his return, he signed with the Cleveland Browns with whom he made his NFL debut in 2004. After playing 29 games for the Browns over 2 seasons, Nick signed with the Steelers as an unrestricted free agent for the 2007 season. Over 4 seasons in the Steel City, he played defensive tackle, right defensive end and left defensive end and showcased his versatility. In 2011, Nick joined the Arizona Cardinals where he played for two seasons before retiring at the end of the 2012 season.

Over his 116 game career, including 21 games started, Nick recorded 85 tackles and 45 assists to go with 7 sacks and a forced fumble.

After retiring as a player, Eason served as an intern coach with the Cleveland Browns and has been a defensive line coach with the Tennessee Titans since 2014.

Nick is strong Christian man who enjoys sharing his faith in his Lord & Savior Jesus Christ.
