

To Whom It May Concern:

Paul Cartwright with Sports Celebrity Marketing was an excellent company to work with and provided us with two former MLB players that made a perfect addition to our Cubs-A-Palooza. I would recommend using his services for any client booking. He was extremely professional and was easy to work with. With his help we were able to provide an over-the-top experience for our fans.

I would highly recommend Paul Cartwright with Sports Celebrity Marketing to any team or organization looking for a top notch professional celebrity marketing company.
