

Ron Hoggarth

Drafted by The Kitchener Rangers in 1963, Ron later enrolled at McMaster University in Hamilton. After graduating in 1971, Hoggarth became an NHL referee, who was known to be a strict disciplinarian with a sense of humour.

Ron refereed 1173 regular season games, 159 playoff games and 3 All-Star games, before retiring in 1994.

Ron continues to referee NHL old-timer tournaments, and is an entertaining public speaker. Ever wanted to know what it's like on the ice with some of the game's superstars – Ron has the stories!
