Tony Miles

Tony is a former wide receiver for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats and Toronto Argonauts.

During his college career at Northwest Missouri State, he was a three-time All-MIAA First Team Selection. In 2000, he was also an NCAA Division II All-American as a Kick Returner. He set school career records in TD receptions (30), receiving yards (3,079), punt return yardage (1,302) and punt return touchdowns (3). In 2001, he signed with the Los Angeles Rams but was released.

Tony began his CFL career in 2002 with the Tiger-Cats but was traded to the Toronto Argonauts after a season in Steeltown for popular Joe Montford. That first season in Toronto, he was named to the CFL All-Star team as well as the Eastern Division All-Star team.

Tony spent 5 seasons with the Argos, winning the Grey Cup with them in 2004, before signing as a free agent back in Hamilton where he started for the 2008 season. Injuries in his final season in Hamilton curtailed his productivity and ultimately led to his release in the off-season.
