

Walt McKechnie

In his 16 year NHL career, Walt played for 8 teams. His longest stint with any one team was 197 games for the California Golden Seals and his shortest time was with the Washington Capitals for 16 games.

Walt was a great scorer but had the misfortune of playing for a number of poor teams. Despite playing 955 career games, he played only 15 playoff games by making the playoffs twice.

The teams Walt played for include:

- Minnesota North Stars
- California Golden Seals
- Boston Bruins
- Detroit Red Wings (twice)
- Washington Capitals
- Cleveland Barons
- Toronto Maple Leafs
- Colorado Rockies

Walt produced scoring 606 career points including 82 in one season for the Wings.
