

Greg Coleman

Greg is a former NFL punter for the Vikings, Browns and Redskins and holds the distinction of being the first African-American punter in the National Football League. He is a member of the Florida A & M University Football Hall of Fame, a member of the State of Florida Track & Field Hall of Fame, Florida Sports Hall of Fame, and was named to both the All-Time Black College Football Team and Black College Football Hall of Fame. He was named the Minnesota Vikings NFL Man of the Year in 1985 and was also selected by fans to be a member of the Minnesota Vikings 25th and 40th Anniversary teams.

Just for kicks, Greg has served as the sideline analyst for the Minnesota Vikings Radio Network on KFAN during the NFL season for over a decade. Following his playing career Greg spent 8 years in the financial services industry and a 24 year career in sales and marketing.

Greg is now an inspirations speaker, gifted storyteller and transformational expert, teaching leader and business owner how to Flip the Field, get a Leg Up on Life, and Shift the Atmosphere in their organizations using proven principals. He has a special passion for business, civic leaders and public safety workers charged with leadership in their communities. He understands that communication is the number one ingredient in building a formidable team. Learning how to work effectively as a team is a key component in all Greg's messages.

Contact us to book Greg for your next event. Your group will leave the event with practical principles, guidance, motivation and inspiration that they need to take their team to the next level.